JU Alumni

We're Thankful for You!

November is here, and 2018 is already coming to a close. Many of us choose to reflect on the things we are thankful for this time of year. Around our office, there are a few things we have a common gratitude for: loved ones, our careers, and the education that got us here. We're also thankful for our alumni and supporters, who maintain the Dolphin tradition of giving back to our exceptional students.

If you're thankful for the education you received at JU, and wish to help a current Dolphin do the same, consider making a gift of any size this Giving Tuesday - November 27th.
