The PLAYERS Championship Work/Volunteer Opportunity

The Office of the President is searching for Jacksonville University's elite and engaging students (or parents!) to represent their University at The PLAYERS Championship (TPC) March 12-17, 2019 during our spring break. For this year's tournament, Jacksonville University is the primary educational partner contributing a majority of volunteers and staff members.

Perks for your student include:

- Build their resume
- Gain professional experience
- FREE entry and parking permit for the entire tournament
- FREE round of golf and access to the exclusive stadium course at TPC Sawgrass
- FREE TPC polo and access to exclusive discounts

If your student is interested in this opportunity, they can visit theplayersvolunteers.com and enter the code 8804 to sign up. Parents interested should register as a "new volunteer" and will need to pay a $99 fee to cover their uniform. Please contact McKenzie Bolin at mbolin1@ju.edu for more information.

Excellence in the Linda Berry Stein College of Fine Arts

We had stellar news in the Linda Berry Stein College of Fine Arts over the holiday. Two of our productions have been honored by the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival: String, directed by Prof. Erik DeCicco, and Into the Woods, directed by Prof. Kimberly Beasley. Both productions will go on the road February 5-9 for appearances at the Region IV Kennedy Center Festival at Converse College, Spartanburg, SC. Should they advance, we may be Washington D.C. bound!
