Dolphin Lawyers

Are you a Dolphin Lawyer? We are working with the Jacksonville University Pre-Law Society to identify attorneys and formalize the Dolphin Lawyer Network. Let us know by contacting Chelsea at cshacke@ju.edu!

GOLD Phin Spotlight: Stephen Eager

Read the first installment of "Never Quit," a blog by Stephen Eager '19, a student-veteran who recently earned his bachelor's degree from Jacksonville University. Stephen is currently studying to obtain a Master's in Public Policy while battling both military trauma and an exacerbated learning disability. These blogs, which will run occasionally throughout the academic year, describe how he has overcome adversity and is achieving his goals.

Global Toast

Save the date to celebrate our University's birthday and Big Green Give with Dolphins around the world on April 16, 2020.

If you're interested in having a toast location in your city for the 2020 JU Global Toast, please contact us at alumni@ju.edu with your idea. Your toast doesn't have to be a big party - it can be between two people or 20 people; it's all about the honor of being a Dolphin.

Waterfront Weekend

Save the date to join Jacksonville University's rowing and sailing teams, Marine Science Research Institute (MSRI), and our academic partner OSEARCH for a weekend on the banks of the wide St. Johns! Discounted tickets for GOLD Phins are $75 for Rock the Docks on Friday, March 6 at the River House and Saturday, March 7 is family-friendly and free to attend.
