CAMPUS UPDATE
FOR FALL 2020

Jacksonville University's Fall 2020 Plan

The Alumni Office joins the University in its concern for the well-being of our community of alumni, students, faculty, staff, and friends around the world. To provide a glimpse of how the fall will look on campus, Jacksonville University has launched the Ready to Return webpage. The page includes a message from President Cost, as well as an overview of what to expect in areas such as academics, housing, visitor access, and events. We appreciate your understanding as we work to protect the health of our campus community this fall. Please contact alumni@ju.edu if you have any questions about our fall policy.

Still Work To Do: An Open Letter to the Jacksonville University Community

"As your senior leaders, we commit to read, listen or watch something every day that furthers our understanding of issues that impact the Black community -- issues involving power, privilege, supremacy, oppression, and equity." On June 19, the Office of the President and members of the Senior Cabinet addressed the campus acknowledging the necessity for change on campus and in the community, and the actions Jacksonville University is taking.
