

Keigwin School of Nursing Program Outcomes

BSN Program Outcomes	MSN Program Outcomes	DNP Program Outcomes
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Synthesize knowledge from the liberal arts and sciences and nursing science to understand global perspectives, stimulate critical thinking, and use current technologies. 2. Make sound decisions in the use of patient information and health care technology to design, coordinate, and manage nursing care for individuals, families and populations. 3. Demonstrate clinical excellence to provide caring, compassionate, and culturally appropriate patient-centered care to people in a variety of settings. 4. Communicate, collaborate, and negotiate to improve patient healthcare outcomes. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Integrate knowledge from a variety of disciplines to support and improve nursing practice in diverse healthcare settings. 2. Communicate, collaborate, and consult with interdisciplinary teams to deliver and/or coordinate direct and/or indirect care for populations to promote health and improve healthcare outcomes. 3. Utilize ethical principles and critical decision-making skills to function as a leader and advocate within healthcare systems. 4. Influence the systems level as a nurse leader in advocating regulatory, legislative, and public policy development in private and public arenas to promote positive health outcomes and preserve healthy communities. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Lead interdisciplinary health care initiatives at the organizational and systems level to improve health outcomes for individuals and populations. 2. Integrate principles of ethics and cultural diversity into clinical decision making for individuals and populations experiencing complex health issues. 3. Influence public policy designed to ensure the safety and quality of healthcare for individuals and populations. 4. Demonstrate proficiency in the use of technology and information systems designed to improve the quality of care for individuals and populations.

5. Exhibit professional values and behaviors as outlined by a professional code of ethics, professional standards, and legal statutes. 6. Promote healthy lifestyles through health promotion, risk reduction, and disease prevention education for individuals and populations. 7. Incorporate evidence-based knowledge and theory into nursing practice. 8. Demonstrate leadership and collaboration within interdisciplinary health care partners and professional, political, and/or regulatory organizations to support change in health care.	5. Design nursing strategies to solve clinical problems and improve patient care through the integration of knowledge from practice, theory and research. 6. Appraise theories and conceptual frameworks from nursing and related disciplines as a foundation for implementing change in nursing and applies research outcomes within practice. 7. Use leadership skills to assess, plan, and deliver evidence-based preventative care to populations and advocate for system-wide culturally appropriate care. 8. Lead organizational systems in construction and evaluation of health care outcomes utilizing appropriate resources while providing for safe and quality patient care.	5. Critically evaluate the philosophical and scientific underpinnings of advanced nursing practice. 6. Translate relevant research findings from nursing and related disciplines to advanced nursing practice to improve health outcomes for individuals and populations. 7. Demonstrate advanced nursing practice at the highest level to promote health and manage direct and indirect care of individuals experiencing acute and chronic health issues. 8. Disseminate advanced nursing knowledge derived from clinical scholarship.
---	--	---

9. Allocate and manage resources to ensure patient safety and high quality health care. 10. Engage in life-long learning and scholarly inquiry to continue professional career development	9. Compose a plan for professional development and lifelong learning that will continue to advance the level of nursing knowledge. 10. Apply health information technologies to increase health literacy and enhance the direct and indirect care of patients. For Nurse Practitioner Students 11. Demonstrate advanced nursing practice at the highest level to promote health and manage direct and indirect care of individuals experiencing acute and chronic health issues.
--	--	--